Collect

Gracious Father,
you gave up your Son
out of love for the world:
lead us to ponder the mysteries of his passion,
that we may know eternal peace
through the shedding of our Saviour's blood, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

Isaiah 43: 16-21 NLT

I am the LORD, who opened a way through the waters, making a dry path through the sea.
I called forth the mighty army of Egypt with all its chariots and horses.
I drew them beneath the waves, and they drowned,
their lives snuffed out like a smoldering candlewick.
“But forget all that it is nothing compared to what I am going to do.
For I am about to do something new.
See, I have already begun! Do you not see it?
I will make a pathway through the wilderness.
I will create rivers in the dry wasteland.
The wild animals in the fields will thank me,
the jackals and owls, too,
for giving them water in the desert.
Yes, I will make rivers in the dry wasteland
so my chosen people can be refreshed.
I have made Israel for myself,
and they will someday honor me before the whole world.

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Glory to you, O Lord

John 12: 1-8 NLT

Six days before the Passover celebration began, Jesus arrived in Bethany, the home of Lazarus, the man he had raised from the dead. A dinner was prepared in Jesus' honour. Martha served, and Lazarus was among those who ate with him. Then Mary took a twelve-ounce jar of expensive perfume made from essence of nard, and she anointed Jesus' feet with it, wiping his feet with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance.

But Judas Iscariot, the disciple who would soon betray him, said, “That perfume was worth a year's wages. It should have been sold and the money given to the poor.” Not that he cared for the poor, he was a thief, and since he was in charge of the disciples' money, he often stole some for himself.

Jesus replied, “Leave her alone. She did this in preparation for my burial. You will always have the poor among you, but you will not always have me.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ

GARDEN ROOM UPDATE

The Garden Room is to be started hopefully before Easter. We are just waiting on planning application being passed. To date we have raised over £9000, with a sizeable legacy from the late Gwen Gillison. We need around £30,000 in total, as after construction, we need to furnish the room. Please give as much as you can. Garden Room cans are at the back of the church for filling up with your odd coins.
