

News from Bishop Martin, Rt Reverend Martin Warner writes: I shall retire from office on 31 May this year. It has been an enormous privilege to work with so many gifted and committed people during my time in Chichester. I shall always be grateful for our partnership in apostolic mission and will hold this joyful household of faith in my prayers as its future unfolds. The diocese seems to be in good heart after the 950 celebrations. A new diocesan bishop will bring fresh vision and energy, and be supported by a strong, gifted, confident team which is committed to the quality of Christian life in our schools, our parishes, and outreach to those in need. There are well-established protocols for a diocesan vacancy and appointing a new bishop. Discussion about this is now taking shape. There is little that will change in terms of day-to-day life in the diocese. The suffragan bishops will together oversee the life of the diocese during the vacancy. They have decided that Bishop Will is to take on the formal duties of acting bishop, subject to consultation with the Bishop's Council.

Our Purpose: Deeply know, love and follow Jesus

A warm welcome to All Saints Church, Wick. We are a diverse church family, welcoming people of all ages and stages of life. On Sundays we gather to worship, pray, and engage with the Bible, encouraging one another in faith, with groups and activities running throughout the week. We hope you feel at home with us.

We offer a range of services to suit different styles. At 9am we gather at All Saints Church for a traditional service, usually with Holy Communion and hymns. Our 10:30am service at Wick Hall is informal, with refreshments from 10am, children's and youth groups, and worship led by a band. On the first Sunday of the month we meet together as one church family, and on the second Sunday at 7pm we gather for extended worship and prayer. During the week, we also meet in small groups, mostly in the evenings, with some daytime groups available. We also have a popular midweek communion service, Wednesdays, 9.30am.

COLLECT (Worldwide Anglican prayer) for The The Second Sunday before Lent

Almighty God, give us reverence for all creation and respect for every person, that we may mirror your likeness in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Testimony catch up... did you miss last Sunday's testimony? Here it is:
A few years ago we rented a cottage in Wharfdale Yorkshire. The nearest building was a barn.

After supper we went straight to bed. During the night M went to the bathroom. The light switch on the landing wasn't at the top of the stairs but was located a good way down. In trying to locate it M slipped and shot down the stairs and hit the wall at the bottom.

I woke up and put the bedroom light on as M staggered in. To say his face as a mess was an understatement. We couldn't phone 999 as there was no signal for our mobiles. But the owner of the cottage had left a book with helpful addresses. We decided to go to the hospital which was 30 miles away. There was also a map. When daylight came we left. M insisted on driving, leaving me to mop him up as he was bleeding heavily so I wasn't paying attention to the route.

We arrived at the hospital and M went into shock. He was taken away on a trolley. After a while a doctor found me and said M was going in an ambulance to another hospital where a plastic surgeon would be waiting for him. I wasn't allowed to go with him so I spent the day at the original hospital, I didn't do too badly – roast beef and Yorkshire puds on the menu!

When he was brought back it was dusk. I was told I couldn't stay at the hospital. I so I had to return to the cottage as they were keeping him overnight. So I got in the car and tried not to panic. It was dark by now and I didn't know the route as I hadn't been concentrating on the journey there. I had been concentrating on M. So I put a worship CD on and sang along with it. I prayed to Jesus and said, 'Please help me'. I felt a sense of peace wash over me and I knew it would be alright. So Jesus and I left together. I didn't hear an audible voice but in my head I knew which turning to take each time and eventually we got to the cottage. Normally I would have been nervous on my own in a strange place I don't know but I knew I wasn't alone, Jesus was with me. I slept well and next day got up and with Jesus' help returned to the hospital. Again, no audible voice but guidance in my head. Parking was never my strong point but when we arrived, there was a parking space right in front of me and I drove straight into it.

It then struck me how putting my trust in Jesus Christ had helped me and guided me. Without him I couldn't have done it. He is trustworthy as I found out then, and many times since. Anna

PS: It reminds us of last week's beatitude – Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God. Jesus was speaking about having an undivided heart towards him and the things of God; when we do we will begin to see Jesus in all sorts of situations, places and people. May we see Him more and more as we keep our hearts and minds fixed on the Lord.

BIBLE READING

Verses of prophecy from the book of Isaiah 42:1-7

1 'Here is my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen one in whom I delight; I will put my Spirit on him, and he will bring justice to the nations. 2 He will not shout or cry out, or raise his voice in the streets. 3 A bruised reed he will not break, and a smouldering wick he will not snuff out. In faithfulness he will bring forth justice; 4 he will not falter or be discouraged till he establishes justice on earth. In his teaching the islands will put their hope.' 5 This is what God the Lord says – the Creator of the heavens, who stretches them out, who spreads out the earth with all that springs from it, who gives breath to its people, and life to those who walk on it: 6 'I, the Lord, have called you in righteousness; I will take hold of your hand. I will keep you and will make you to be a covenant for the people and a light for the Gentiles, 7 to open eyes that are blind, to free captives from prison and to release from the dungeon those who sit in darkness.

Matthew 5:17-48

17 'Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfil them. 18 For truly I tell you, until heaven and earth disappear, not the smallest letter, not the least stroke of a pen, will by any means disappear from the Law until everything is accomplished. 19 Therefore anyone who sets aside one of the least of these commands and teaches others accordingly will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever practises and teaches these commands will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. 20 For I tell you that unless your righteousness surpasses that of the Pharisees and the teachers of the law, you will certainly not enter the kingdom of heaven. 21 'You have heard that it was said to the people long ago, "You shall not murder, and anyone who murders will be subject to judgment." 22 But I tell you that anyone who is angry with a brother or sister will be subject to judgment. Again, anyone who says to a brother or sister, "Raca," is answerable to the court. And anyone who says, "You fool!" will be in danger of the fire of hell. 23 'Therefore, if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother or sister has something against you, 24 leave your gift there in front of the altar. First go and be reconciled to them; then come and offer your gift. 25 'Settle matters quickly with your adversary who is taking you to court. Do it while you are still together on the way, or your adversary may hand you over to the judge, and the judge may hand you over to the officer, and you may be thrown into prison. 26 Truly I tell you, you will not get out until you have paid the last penny. 27 'You have heard that it was said, "You shall not commit adultery." 28 But I tell you that anyone who looks at a woman lustfully has already committed adultery with her in his heart. 29 If your right eye causes you to stumble, gouge it out and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to be thrown into hell. 30 And if your right hand causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to go into hell. 31 'It has been said, "Anyone who divorces his wife must give her a certificate of divorce." 32 But I tell you that anyone who divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, makes her the victim of adultery, and anyone who marries a divorced woman commits adultery. 33 'Again, you have heard that it was said to the people long ago, "Do not break your oath, but fulfil to the Lord the oaths you have made." 34 But I tell you, do not swear an oath at all: either by heaven, for it is God's throne; 35 or by the earth, for it is his footstool; or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the Great King. 36 And do not swear by your head, for you cannot make even one hair white or black. 37 All you need to say is simply "Yes," or "No"; anything beyond this comes from the evil one. 38 'You have heard that it was said, "Eye for eye, and tooth for tooth." 39 But I tell you, do not resist an evil person. If anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to them the other cheek also. 40 And if anyone wants to sue you and take your shirt, hand over your coat as well. 41 If anyone forces you to go one mile, go with them two miles. 42 Give to the one who asks you, and do not turn away from the one who wants to borrow from you. 43 'You have heard that it was said, "Love your neighbour and hate your enemy." 44 But I tell you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, 45 that you may be children of your Father in heaven. He causes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous. 46 If you love those who love you, what reward will you get? Are not even the tax collectors doing that? 47 And if you greet only your own people, what are you doing more than others? Do not even pagans do that? 48 Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect.
