All Saints Wick
Know, Love & Follow Jesus

Sunday 11 January
'The Promised Immanuel'

Our Purpose: Deeply know, love and follow Jesus

A warm welcome to All Saints Church, Wick. We are a diverse church family, welcoming people of all ages and stages of life. On Sundays we gather to worship, pray, and engage with the Bible, encouraging one another in faith, with groups and activities running throughout the week. We hope you feel at home with us.

We offer a range of services to suit different styles. At 9am we gather at All Saints Church for a traditional service, usually with Holy Communion and hymns. Our 10:30am service at Wick Hall is informal, with refreshments from 10am, children's and youth groups, and worship led by a band. On the first Sunday of the month we meet together as one church family, and on the second Sunday at 7pm we gather for extended worship and prayer. During the week, we also meet in small groups, mostly in the evenings, with some daytime groups available. We also have a popular midweek communion service, Wednesdays, 9.30am.

COLLECT (Worldwide Anglican prayer) for The The Baptism of Christ

Heavenly Father, at the Jordan you revealed Jesus as your Son: may we recognize him as our Lord and know ourselves to be your beloved children; through Jesus Christ our Saviour..

It is with deep sorrow that we share the news of the unexpected death of our dear friend and sister in Christ Alison Manchester, just before the New Year. Alison was at the heart of All Saints, often the first to greet you, whether outside the door or inside, and serving faithfully in countless ways across our church life. Her warmth and cheerfulness will be profoundly missed. Yet as we mourn, we also hold fast to the hope of our faith in Jesus Christ, a hope that Alison trusted. Our comfort does not rest on the strength of our own faith, but on the faithfulness of our Saviour, who promises life and peace beyond understanding. As John 3:16 reminds us, 'For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.' In Jesus, the gift of eternal life is offered to all who believe. Alison now rests in that love, and we are called to lean on it too, trusting in God's promise that nothing, not even death, can separate us from His purposes and His care.

As we move into this New Year, let's spur one another on to lean on God's promises day by day, remembering Philippians 1:6: 'He who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.' May this assurance strengthen us, encourage us, and remind us that God's faithfulness never fails.

BIBLE READING

Verses of prophecy from the book of Isaiah: 7:14 and 9:6,7

14 Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign: the virgin will conceive and give birth to a son, and will call him Immanuel.

6 For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. 7 Of the greatness of his government and peace there will be no end. He will reign on David's throne and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and for ever. The zeal of the Lord Almighty will accomplish this.

Matthew 1: 1-25

1 This is the genealogy of Jesus the Messiah the son of David, the son of Abraham: 2 Abraham was the father of Isaac, Isaac the father of Jacob, Jacob the father of Judah and his brothers, 3 Judah the father of Perez and Zerah, whose mother was Tamar, Perez the father of Hezron, Hezron the father of Ram, 4 Ram the father of Amminadab, Amminadab the father of Nahshon, Nahshon the father of Salmon, 5 Salmon the father of Boaz, whose mother was Rahab, Boaz the father of Obed, whose mother was Ruth, Obed the father of Jesse, 6 and Jesse the father of King David. David was the father of Solomon, whose mother had been Uriah's wife, 7 Solomon the father of Rehoboam, Rehoboam the father of Abijah, Abijah the father of Asa, 8 Asa the father of Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat the father of Jehoram, Jehoram the father of Uzziah, 9 Uzziah the father of Jotham, Jotham the father of Ahaz, Ahaz the father of Hezekiah, 10 Hezekiah the father of Manasseh, Manasseh the father of Amon, Amon the father of Josiah, 11 and Josiah the father of Jeconiah and his brothers at the time of the exile to Babylon. 12 After the exile to Babylon: Jeconiah was the father of Shealtiel, Shealtiel the father of Zerubbabel, 13 Zerubbabel the father of Abihud, Abihud the father of Eliakim, Eliakim the father of Azor, 14 Azor the father of Zadok, Zadok the father of Akim, Akim the father of Elihud, 15 Elihud the father of Eleazar, Eleazar the father of Matthan, Matthan the father of Jacob, 16 and Jacob the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary, and Mary was the mother of Jesus who is called the Messiah. 17 Thus there were fourteen generations in all from Abraham to David, fourteen from David to the exile to Babylon, and fourteen from the exile to the Messiah. 18 This is how the birth of Jesus the Messiah came about: his mother Mary was pledged to be married to Joseph, but before they came together, she was found to be pregnant through the Holy Spirit. 19 Because Joseph her husband was faithful to the law, and yet did not want to expose her to public disgrace, he had in mind to divorce her quietly. 20 But after he had considered this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, 'Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because what is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. 21 She will give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins.' 22 All this took place to fulfil what the Lord had said through the prophet: 23 'The virgin will conceive and give birth to a son, and they will call him Immanuel' (which means 'God with us'). 24 When Joseph woke up, he did what the angel of the Lord had commanded him and took Mary home as his wife. 25 But he did not consummate their marriage until she gave birth to a son. And he gave him the name Jesus.

As we begin 2026, would you renew your commitment to pray and please pray for the strengthening of their faith and a deepening hope in God, that they may be filled with joy and peace as they trust in Him, knowing He has a purpose and a future for them.

Testimonies: Many of you will have testimonies of God's goodness in a myriad of ways over the last year. It would be so good to share it with your church family, please get in touch with Lisa or let her know.

Christmas Leaflets and Christmas Services – Thank you so much! Thanks to so many of you joining in, we were able to deliver nearly 5,000 invitations to the households around our parishes. She is supporting the parish on a temporary, self-employed basis, helping us put in place the systems and foundations we need for the future. This short-term work will prepare the way for us to create a permanent Parish Administrator role, which we hope to appoint later in 2026. Please join me in welcoming Liz into this role and praying for her as she helps us strengthen the ministry and administration of the parish. Church Building Works: You may have noticed that there is scaffolding around the front of the church building. This is due to repointing of the church wall. Water ingress has been a problem for some time, causing damp and mould on the inside wall as well as damaging the outside of the building. The cost of this work is approx £5,500. In addition, because the boiler inside the church is ancient, thoroughly unreliable and inefficient, the Diocese have granted us permission for a replacement boiler which will be sited in the coffee area (rather than the cellar). This will cost approx £9,000.

Hence, we are fundraising to try and offset some of these costs. A big thank you to all who have supported us so far in many different ways, eg cleaning & painting the church, cash donations, giving us items for the recent Gift Sale and generally helping us with your time and effort. We continue to pray that the Lord will encourage further generosity as we strive for the upkeep of our lovely church building. Jane Hicks

Church Directory and Website Update Having listened to feedback about our church directory and website, we are in the process of updating them. The update to the church family directory gives us chance to make sure that the information we have is up to date and that everyone is still happy for it to be there. You'll still be able to access it through the website, but there will also be an app if you prefer.

If you receive our newsletter by email, you will shortly receive a short email form to fill in. The system we are moving to is called ChurchSuite and it is used in many churches already. It will give you chance to decide which information we hold and also what is visible to others. Paper sign up sheets will also be available for those who receive a paper copy of the newsletter but who would like to be included. We hope that the new system will make it easier for us all to communicate and further down the line we can expand its use. If you have any questions, please speak to Liz Brooks who is setting up ChurchSuite for us.
