

Pray for 5 Pledge

Having started with Thy Kingdom Come prayer over the 11 days from Ascension to Pentecost, don't stop believing and praying for more people to know God's life-transforming love. Turn prayer for friends into a lifestyle that can impact a community for the kingdom.

People I am praying for: 1..... 2..... 3.....

4..... 5.....

I will pray for: God to bless them | Opportunities to share my faith with them | Them to come to know Jesus

Praying the News: Rather than switching off the news, consider praying for each news story for we are called to bring the world and it's needs to God in prayer.

Praying for our Church family: This week we give thanks to God and pray for all those involved in preparing, serving and clearing away our refreshments. It is so good to have time with one another and an opportunity to intentionally get to know those we don't yet know well.

Pray for wholeness and healing: For Don Ellis, David & Margaret Millidge, Angie Johnson, Nancy Fellows, Jeff, Dan and Beccy Jenkins, Gill Haworth, the Batchelors, Susan, Ian, Sarah's family & relatives of church family: Sophie, Jean, Jamie Colclough (Val Stewart's son).

Praying for Wick and Kingley Gate – Road of the Week: Cherry Croft.

Dear Lord, We place the name of Jesus over Cherry Croft – all who live, work and travel there. May they know the light of your presence, the joy of your peace and the hope of your guidance. We ask this in Jesus' powerful name. Amen.

Pray for those newly baptised and confirmed: Amy, Levi, Brenda and Sue.

Pray for the 5 candidates preparing for baptism: 4 under 18s and 1 adult.

God of truth, help us to keep your law of love and to walk in ways of wisdom, that we may find true life in Jesus Christ your Son.

Tell how much God has done for you

In her book A Thousand Gifts, New York Times bestselling author Ann Voskamp invites readers to embrace everyday blessings and embark on the transformative journey of chronicling God's gifts to each of us. In our reading we see Jesus sets a person free from the multitude of things oppressing him and invites him to 'return home and tell how much God has done for you' Luke 8:39. Are you up for that challenge? Take out a piece of paper and begin to chronicle all the things you can thank God for today and work back into the past day, week, month, year... I know it's really hard isn't it to even think of five things? But once you have written five, keep going. Pray as you do, thanking God, asking him to remind you of past gifts. When your list is much longer, pause and take stock. Now the greater challenge, go and tell someone how much God has done for you.

BIBLE READING

Luke 8: 26-39

26 They sailed to the region of the Gerasenes, which is across the lake from Galilee. 27 When Jesus stepped ashore, he was met by a demon-possessed man from the town. For a long time this man had not worn clothes or lived in a house, but had lived in the tombs. 28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out and fell at his feet, shouting at the top of his voice, 'What do you want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, don't torture me!' 29 For Jesus had commanded the impure spirit to come out of the man. Many times it had seized him, and though he was chained hand and foot and kept under guard, he had broken his chains and had been driven by the demon into solitary places. 30 Jesus asked him, 'What is your name?' 'Legion,' he replied, because many demons had gone into him. 31 And they begged Jesus repeatedly not to order them to go into the Abyss. 32 A large herd of pigs was feeding there on the hillside. The demons begged Jesus to let them go into the pigs, and he gave them permission. 33 When the demons came out of the man, they went into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned. 34 When those tending the pigs saw what had happened, they ran off and reported this in the town and countryside, 35 and the people went out to see what had happened. When they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone out, sitting at Jesus' feet, dressed and in his right mind; and they were afraid.

36 Those who had seen it told the people how the demon-possessed man had been cured. 37 Then all the people of the region of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them, because they were overcome with fear. So he got into the boat and left. 38 The man from whom the demons had gone out begged to go with him, but Jesus sent him away, saying, 39 'Return home and tell how much God has done for you.' So the man went away and told all over the town how much Jesus had done for him.
