Know, Love & Follow Jesus
Gospel Partnership & Perseverance

Our Purpose: Deeply know, love and follow Jesus

A warm welcome to All Saints Church, Wick. We are a diverse church family, welcoming people of all ages and stages of life. On Sundays we gather to worship, pray, and engage with the Bible, encouraging one another in faith, with groups and activities running throughout the week. We hope you feel at home with us.

We offer a range of services to suit different styles. At 9am we gather at All Saints Church for a traditional service, usually with Holy Communion and hymns. Our 10:30am service at Wick Hall is informal, with refreshments from 10am, children's and youth groups, and worship led by a band. On the first Sunday of the month we meet together as one church family, and on the second Sunday at 7pm we gather for extended worship and prayer. During the week, we also meet in small groups, mostly in the evenings, with some daytime groups available. We also have a popular midweek communion service, Wednesdays, 9.30am.

BIBLE READINGS

1 Thessalonians 2:17–3:13

17 But, brothers and sisters, when we were orphaned by being separated from you for a short time (in person, not in thought), out of our intense longing we made every effort to see you. 18 For we wanted to come to you – certainly I, Paul, did, again and again – but Satan blocked our way. 19 For what is our hope, our joy, or the crown in which we will glory in the presence of our Lord Jesus when he comes? Is it not you? 20 Indeed, you are our glory and joy.

Chapter 3

1 So when we could stand it no longer, we thought it best to be left by ourselves in Athens. 2 We sent Timothy, who is our brother and co-worker in God's service in spreading the gospel of Christ, to strengthen and encourage you in your faith, 3 so that no one would be unsettled by these trials. For you know quite well that we are destined for them. 4 In fact, when we were with you, we kept telling you that we would be persecuted. And it turned out that way, as you well know. 5 For this reason, when I could stand it no longer, I sent to find out about your faith. I was afraid that in some way the tempter had tempted you and that our labours might have been in vain. 6 But Timothy has just now come to us from you and has brought good news about your faith and love. He has told us that you always have pleasant memories of us and that you long to see us, just as we also long to see you. 7 Therefore, brothers and sisters, in all our distress and persecution we were encouraged about you because of your faith. 8 For now we really live, since you are standing firm in the Lord. 9 How can we thank God enough for you in return for all the joy we have in the presence of our God because of you? 10 Night and day we pray most earnestly that we may see you again and supply what is lacking in your faith. 11 Now may our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus clear the way for us to come to you. 12 May the Lord make your love increase and overflow for each other and for everyone else, just as ours does for you. 13 May he strengthen your hearts so that you will be blameless and holy in the presence of our God and Father when our Lord Jesus comes with all his holy ones.

I mainly worship at the 9am/10.30am/2nd Sunday 7pm

- 1. How did you first come to All Saints, and what has kept you here? We came back to All Saints through Christian friends, Tom welcomed us in and encouraged us to get involved in different ways.
- 2. Can you share a moment when your faith became particularly real or meaningful to you? After becoming a Christian I learnt about being baptised with the Holy Spirit, I asked God and He baptised me with His Holy Spirit.
- 3. What helps you keep going as a Christian in everyday life? Knowing God is with me all the time, that he loves me and I am forgiven.

Safeguarding

When someone shares a concern, it is important they are listened to and taken seriously. You are not expected to investigate. Keeping people safe and ensuring concerns are recorded and referred appropriately is all of our responsibility.

Recognise

Be alert to signs or disclosures of abuse.

Respond

Listen carefully and take what is being said seriously.

Record

Make a written record of what has been shared.

Refer

Share the concern with the Safeguarding Officer and relevant authorities.

What if it feels like interfering in someone's personal life?
When someone shares a concern with you, it is often because they want help and they are trusting you to act. A safeguarding concern is never just a private matter. You are not being asked to take sides or make a judgement, simply to pass it on so that someone trained to help can take it forward.
Keeping people safe is at the heart of what we are called to do. That is not interference. That is care.

What if I was told something in confidence, or asked to keep it a secret?
It takes courage for someone to share something difficult.
The Reporting Safeguarding Concerns and Allegations Code of Practice is clear that promises of confidentiality should not be made if they cannot be kept.
You can respond with care while explaining that the information may need to be shared to keep people safe.

What if it has already been reported?
Report it anyway.
You cannot know what has or has not been shared, and every account matters.
There is no such thing as reporting too many times when a person's safety is at stake.

What if it happened a long time ago?
Non-recent concerns are still concerns. Time does not change the obligation to refer, and it does not make what happened any less important to the person who experienced it.
If someone has questions about what happens next, be honest about the process. Your DSO can help you navigate that conversation.

What if it involves someone well-known or in a senior position?
We know this one can feel the hardest. The process exists precisely for moments like this.
Seniority does not change the process, and no one is above it. You will not be on your own.
Safeguarding professionals are there to support you.

What if I'm not sure it's serious enough, don't have enough information, or don't know the process?
It is common to feel unsure.
You do not need to know every step before you act.
Your DSO is there to guide you through what happens next.
The most important thing is that you make contact. Everything else can be worked out together.
